Dear Mr. Hurley:

Thank you for your thoughtful note of 10 August. I do indeed look forward to meeting Commissioner von Raab. I trust we can be mutually helpful.

Hope Baltimore continues to treat you well. Good luck and best wishes.

Sincerely,

John N. McMahon

Dear Mr. McMahon:

Congratulations on your important new assignment as DDCI.
I recall very favorably your many management talents from the period when I worked at BOB/OMB.

Commissioner von Raab mentioned to me that he is looking forward to a future meeting with you, Mr. Briggs and others of your staff. I am sure that that meeting will lead to even greater cooperation in the national interest.

Again, with every best wish.

Sincerely,

John A. Hurley
